The Department of Revenue has added more information about business relief payment amounts and eligibility notices to the Tennessee Business Relief Program website.

- Eligibility notifications will be sent to businesses beginning the last week of June. Once notified, businesses will be prompted to complete an online pre-award certification form in order to verify their eligibility criteria and agree to the program's payment guidelines. Businesses owners who do not have online access will be asked to complete a paper certification form.
- Once the certification form has been completed and a business' eligibility is confirmed, the department will issue a business relief payment. Payments for eligible businesses will be issued beginning the first week of July.

- Business relief payment amounts will be based on the annual gross sales of the business. There's more information here.
